Gentlemen:

Not having heard from you in answer to either of my two letters, I write to ask if you will give me some idea of your prices and what you have in Greek silver, gold and electrum.

I do not collect late Greek coins, say after 225 B.C., but confine myself to the earlier specimens and types.

If I can get an idea of what you have, I may be able to arrange to go to Philadelphia and buy some.

Yours truly

Gentlemen:

I return by prepaid Adams express the coins sent on approval.

There are none there that I want.

Perhaps I may get a chance to go to Philadelphia and if so will call on you.

I should like to have your prices on some gold coins, but do not send any on approval unless I write for them.

I am much obliged to you for sending them.

Very truly yours
